

Camp Director

Coach Marc attended Montville High School and was a varsity basketball starter all four years. During this time he also led his AAU team to two straight AAU National appearances, playing against and with athletes such as Amare Stoudemire (NY Knicks), Louel Deng (Cavs) and JR Smith (NY Knicks). Marc participated in the Maccabi games in 2001 leading his team to the Gold Medal. Coach Marc played college basketball at SUNY Brockport. He was selected to the SUNYAC All Academic Team during his freshman year. Since graduating Marc has done professional recruiting for semi pro teams and has worked with the University of Rhode Island Division 1 Girl's Basketball team. Currently Marc coaches AAU teams, runs clinics and camps for all age groups and conducts private lessons. He has worked extensively with professional coaches and players. Coach Marc strives to take each and every player to the next level.

"Marc is a phenomenal coach who has truly helped my son become a better ballplayer. He has a natural way with kids and seems to intuitively know what to say to motivate them. His upbeat style means my son is always looking forward to seeing him, whether at a private lesson or a team practice. He's been an incredible find." Alan Milburn NJ

"My son has been involved in organized sports for about 8 years now. (Basketball, Football, Baseball) Some of the most positive experiences he has enjoyed in this time frame have been with AMoneySportz. He has come away from AMoney with a much greater understanding of the game of basketball, team concepts and what it's like to work hard and see results. We are in our 2nd year with AMoney and already looking forward to the 3rd." Michael Parsippany NJ

"Thanks Coach Marc— You made Sam's summer. I've never seen him so ENTHUSIASTIC about anything in his life. You run the BEST SUMMER CAMP I've ever seen." Don G.
